Welcome !!!

We have a unique presentation: Assets / Values / Business and Organization Coupons / Created for Kids / Site has age appropriate growth economics, education, emotions and ethics messages and stories of opportunity, sharing, and success.

This site is about advertising and storytelling (business); and, consumers using the free information with the children in deliverable asset building before and after 100% of the at risk children start kindergarten 100% ready to read. Our Nation's Pain is outlined here so there is no mistake that the local effective citizen has the attitude tools for recreating an expectation of 100% ready to read starting kindergarten.

ATTENTION TO TIME AND MONEY Business and especially small business knows they must and can move the local needle with this communications and promotion process. This activity has an economic ROI. The promotion is designed to directly pay for itself; designed to increase local real estate values; local security and safety will increase; human capital for growth economics, education, emotions and ethics is created. The design is to reset public schools based on proficiency, parents, communication and sensitive critical early age based success before the gaps are created.

This is how it works!!!

Level 1

- The USAVALUE coupon in combination with a Cobalt Media email is verified to create sales.
- It sells a product or service specially designed to create the ROI to sustain the traffic to the coupon.
- The coupon is nested in a vertical and horizontal network of private and public sector interest.
- The business message nests promotionally within First Things First, Right the First Time, One Size Fits One.
- That concept also flows to being Really Ready to Read Starting Kindergarten as First Things First

Level 2

- The whole site is a gift of true civility messages and positive expectations. : Assets / Values / Business and Organization Coupons / Created for Kids / The Site has age appropriate growth economics, education, emotions and ethics of opportunity, sharing, and success.

Level 3

- A platform exists to locally, regionally and nationally reset the influence over mom and the local community along the most truthful and raw basics of influence. Self interest will always want to get the most and pay the least for a good, better or best choice; comparisons are always in play.
